

What Do You Want to Be?

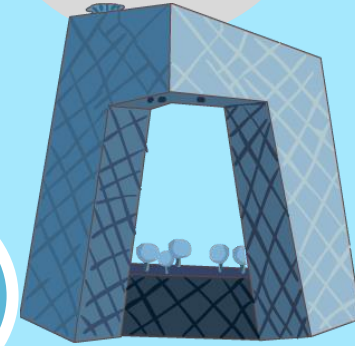

G3-U2-L4

Learn

journalist

television station

host

carpenter

Tips: 1. Have students learn and read the words at least three times;
2. Ask “What do you want to be in the future? Why?” (3 min)

Learn

George, where does your father work?

Oh, Anne. He works at a television station.

What does he do?

He's a journalist.

Learn

That's really cool. I want to be a host someday. I think it must be an interesting job.

You do? I don't. I want to be a carpenter. My dream is to make unique furniture.

Learn

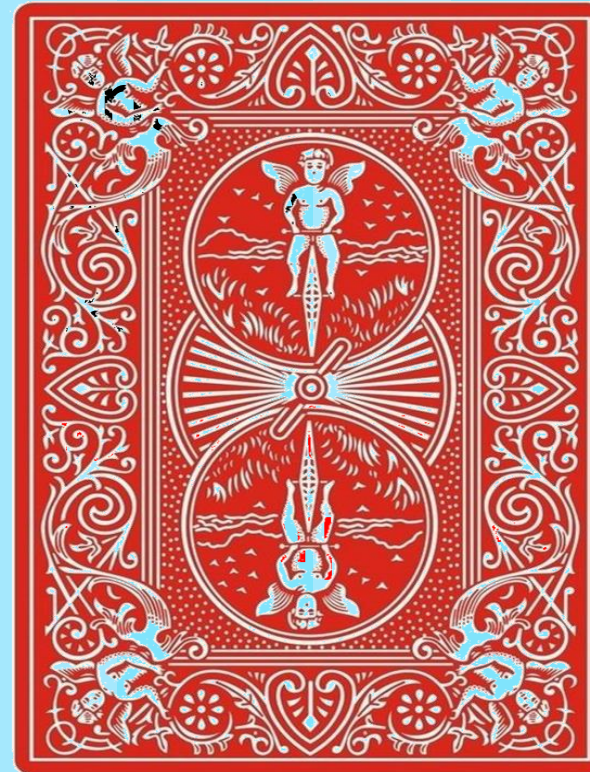

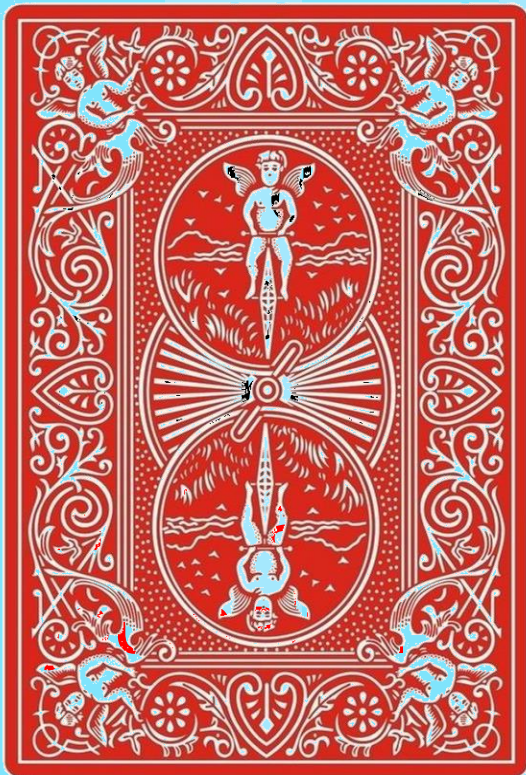

Oh, it is a unique job. Do you think it will be easy to achieve our dreams?

No, we need to study hard and make our dreams come true.

Practice

Click and answer.

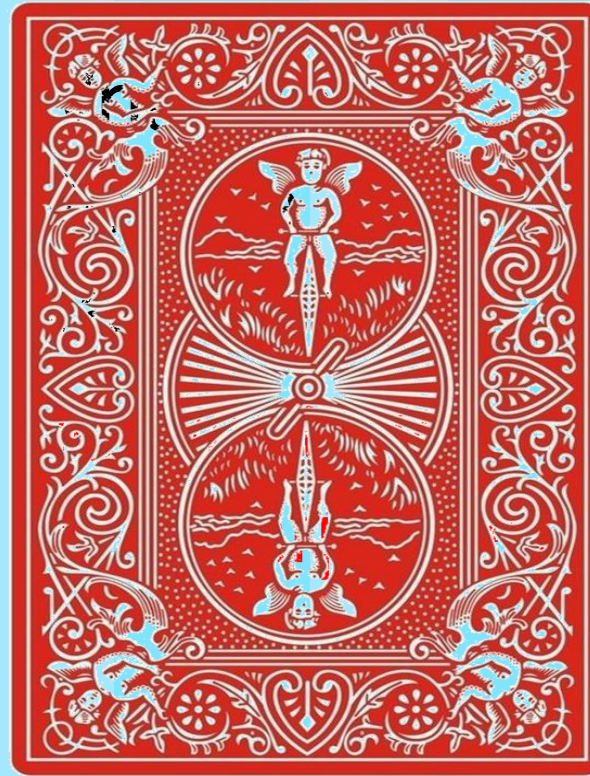

Tips: Have students answer the questions according to the above dialogue. (3 min)

Practice

Click and answer.

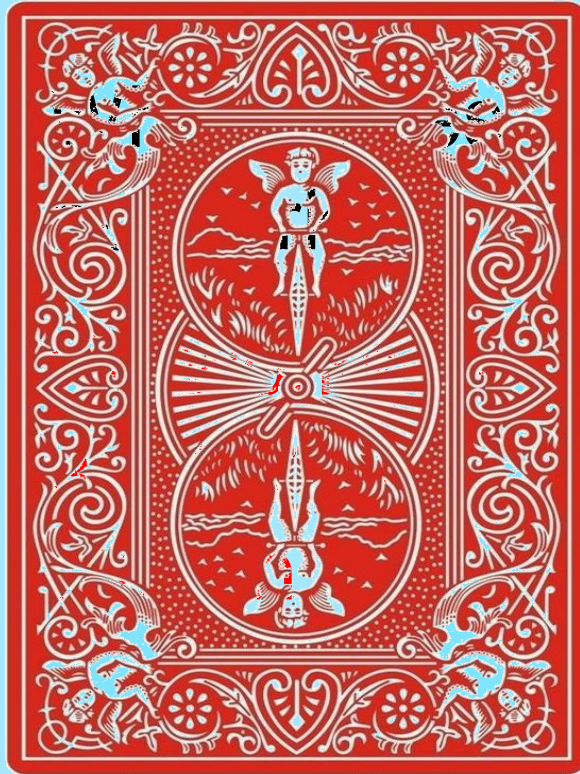

Where does
he work?

He works at a television station.

Practice

Click and answer.

What does
George
want to do?

He wants to be a carpenter.

Practice

Click and answer.

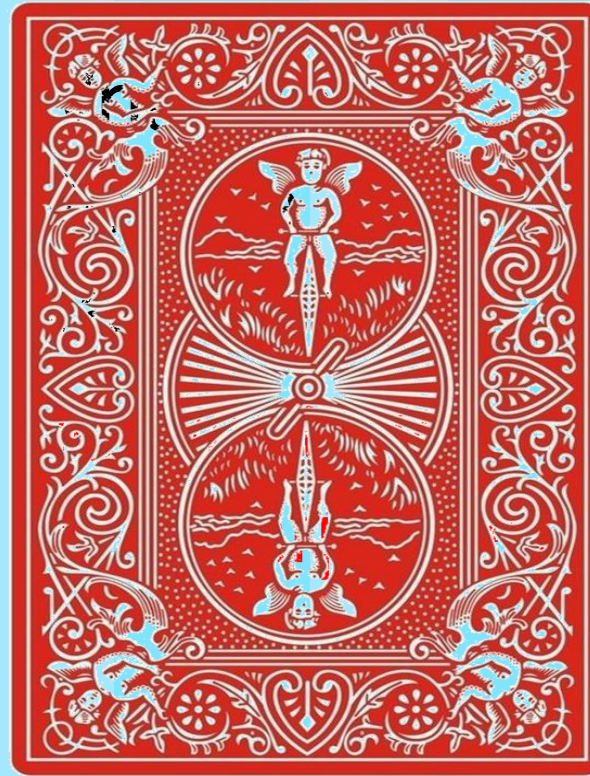

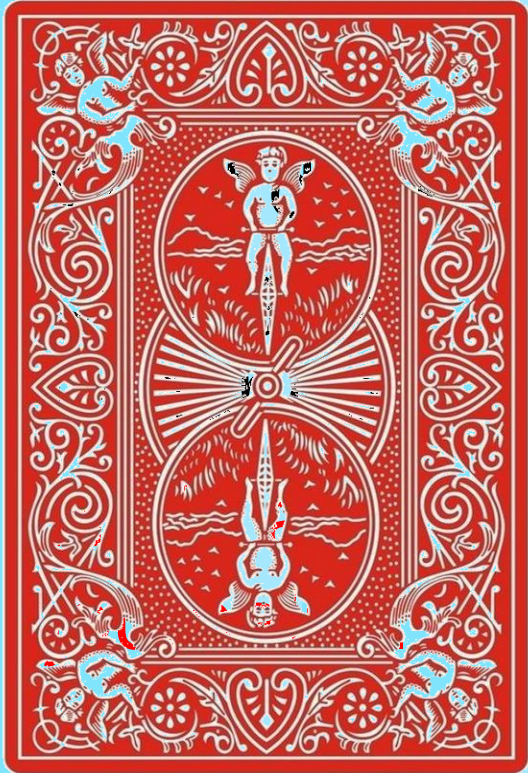

What does
George's father do?

He is a journalist.

Practice

Click and answer.

What does Anne want to be?

She wants to be a host.

Practice

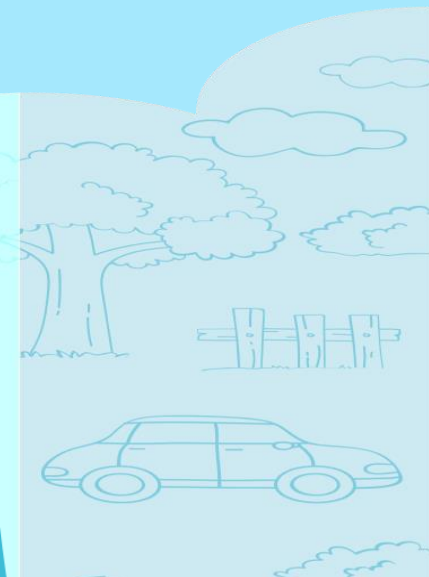

Fill in the blanks.

1. A: What does your father do?

B: He is a host.

2. A: What does he want to be?

B: He wants to be a carpenter.

Practice

Let's talk.

What do you want to be?

What does
your mother do?

What does
your father
do?

What's your uncle's job?

- Tips: 1. Have students read the dialogues;
2. Have students answer the questions according to their family. (3-4 min)

Practice

Let's talk.

Talk about your dream and how to achieve it.

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:
carpenter, host, journalist,
television station, come true

Conclusion

2. We have learned the sentences:

He works at a television station.

He's a journalist.

I want to be a host someday.

I want to be a carpenter.

I hope to make unique furniture.

We need to study hard and make our dream
come true.

