

Review

G4-U1-L12

Review

This is my friend, Nancy.

She has dark brown hair.

She's smart and likes to read.

My name is Becky.

Tips: 1. Have students read the sentences at least twice. 2. Ask “What are the characteristics of Nancy, Bryan, Jerry?”(3-4 min)

Review

This is my other friend, Jerry.

He has light brown hair and eyes.

He's serious.

My name is Becky.

Tips: 1. Have students read the sentences at least twice. 2. Ask “What are the characteristics of Nancy, Bryan, Jerry?”(3-4 min)

Review

This is my other friend, Jerry.

He has blonde hair.

He's friendly and funny.

My name is Becky.

Tips: 1. Have students read the sentences at least twice. 2. Ask “What are the characteristics of Nancy, Bryan, Jerry?”(3-4 min)

Review

1. Sophie has _____ hair.

2. The girl with a
_____ is Anne.

3. May looks very sweet with long _____ black hair.

Tips: 1. Have students complete these sentences independently and read them twice. 2. Ask “What color is your hair?” (2 min)

Review

Anne Is that your friend?

Yes, that's Alan.

Jack

Anne Is he older than you?

No, he's younger than me.

Jack

Anne Oh, he's taller than you.

I know. He's taller than my brother David, too.

Jack

I know. He's taller than my brother David, too.

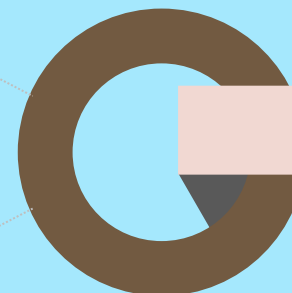

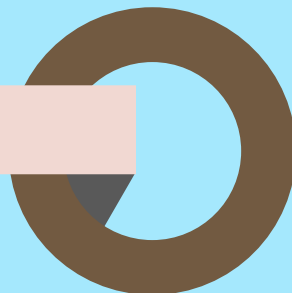

No, he's younger than me.

Yes, that's Alan.

Review

Jack's hair is longer than mine.

01

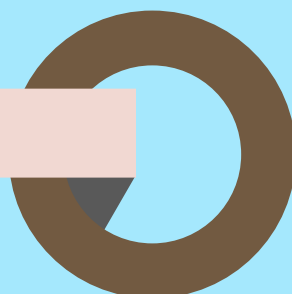

02

Lynn's book is heavier than ours.

My dog is bigger than yours.

03

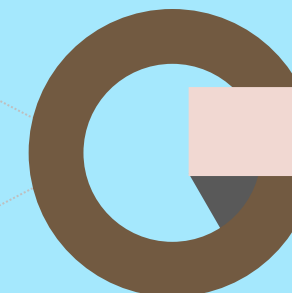

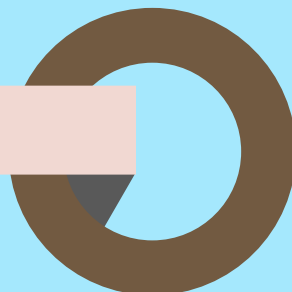

04

My bag is smaller than his/hers.

My car is older
than theirs.

05

Review

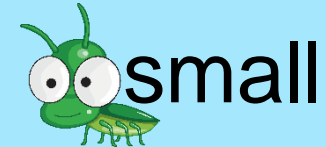

Write the comparatives of these words.

tall

old

small

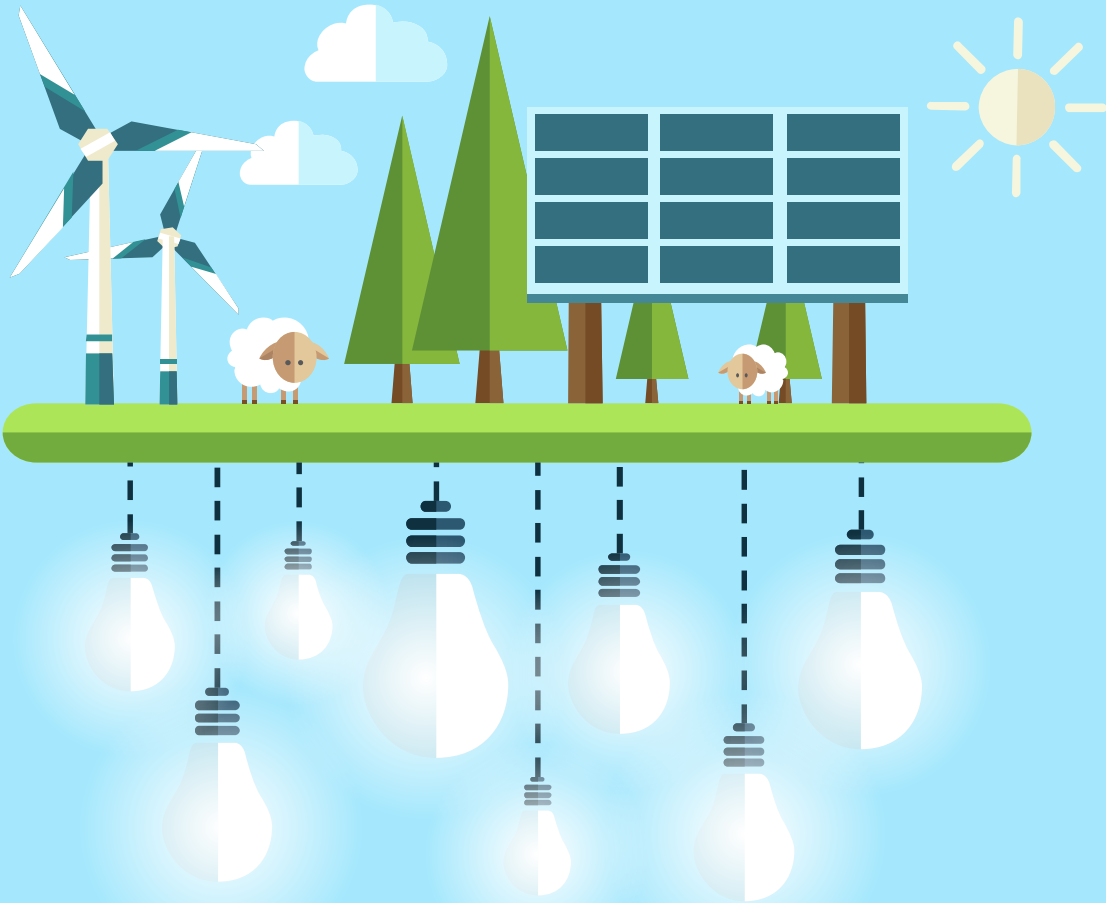

long

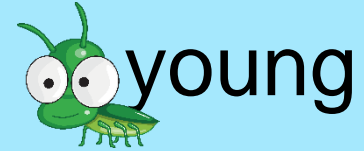

Tips: 1. Have students complete these questions independently. 2. Teacher can make more words, have students write its comparative. For example: short, happy. (2-3 min)

Review

Write the comparatives of these words.

big

young

heavy

Tips: 1. Have students complete these questions independently. 2. Teacher can make more words, have students write its comparative. For example: short, happy.
(2-3 min)

Review

1. Your brother is taller than mine. My brother is shorter than_____.

2. Our car is newer than theirs. Their car is older than_____.

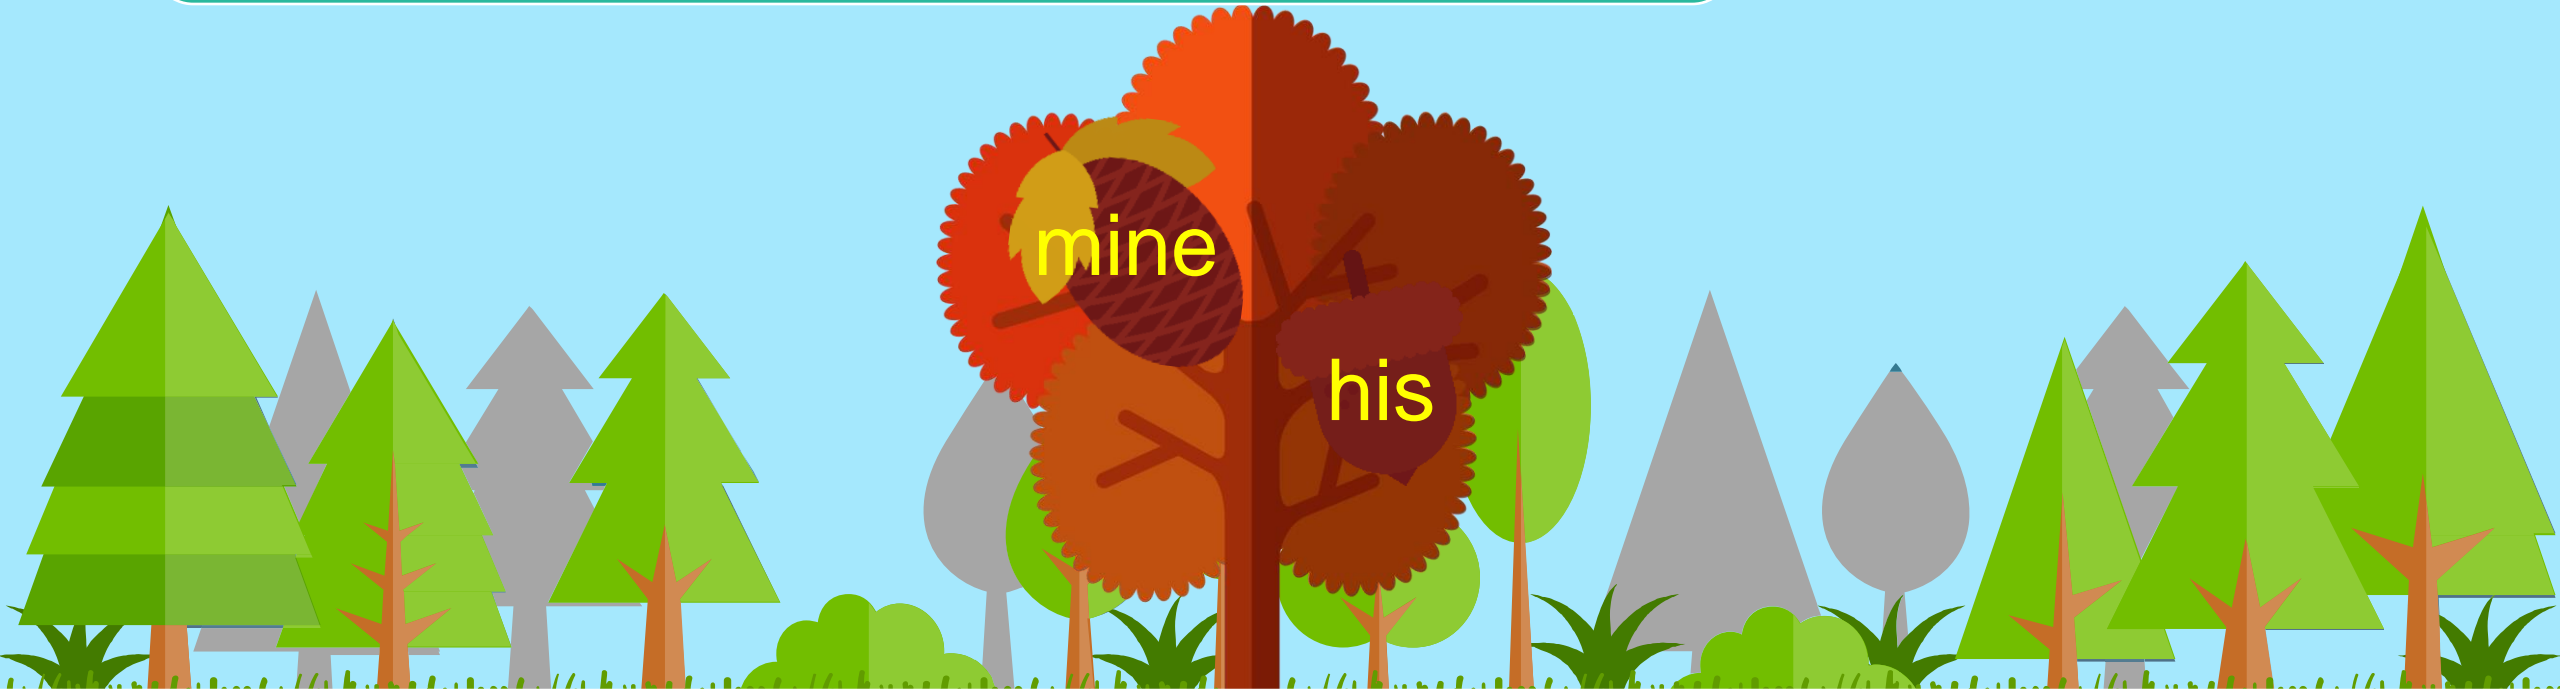

Tips: 1. Have students complete these sentences independently and read them once. 2. Make more sentences to have students answer. For example: My hands are bigger than yours, your hands are _____ than _____.(3 min)

Review

3. My hair is longer than yours. Your hair is shorter than _____.

4. His hair is curlier than hers. Her hair is straighter than _____.

Tips: 1. Have students complete these sentences independently and read them once. 2. Make more sentences to have students answer. For example: My hands are bigger than yours, your hands are _____ than _____. (3 min)

Review

Topic sentence:

My favorite friend
is Mike.

Supporting details:

Final sentence:

- Tips: 1. Have students determine the sentence belong to topic sentence, detail sentence or final sentence;
2. Make more sentences to have students complete. For example: My best friend is Alan; I'm glad to have a friend like Alan. (2-3 min)

Review

Topic sentence:

Supporting details:

He is really smart, and he is funny.
We like to play basketball
on weekends.

Final sentence:

Tips: 1. Have students determine the sentence belong to topic sentence, detail sentence or final sentence;
2. Make more sentences to have students complete. For example: My best friend is Alan; I'm glad to have a friend like Alan. (2-3 min)

Review

Topic sentence:

Supporting details:

Final sentence:

I'm very happy to have a friend like Mike. 🌟

Tips: 1. Have students determine the sentence belong to topic sentence, detail sentence or final sentence;
2. Make more sentences to have students complete. For example: My best friend is Alan; I'm glad to have a friend like Alan. (2-3 min)

Review

Everyone is unique.

Don't mock or tease the people around you.

We have different appearances and characters.

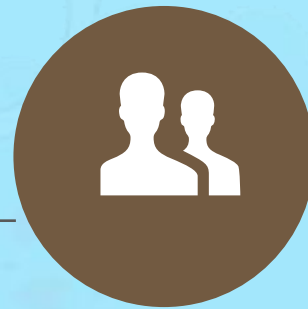

Be considerate to others.

Review

What will affect our looks and characters?

How can we become considerate to the people around us?

