

What Do You Want to Be?

G3-U2-L6

Learn

Tips: 1. Ask the students to look at these pictures and read these possessions. 2. Correct the mistakes. 3. Ask more questions. For example “Where does a cashier work?”(2 min)

Learn

Tips: 1. Ask the students to look at these pictures and read these possessions. 2. Correct the mistakes. 3. Ask more questions. For example “Where does a cashier work?” (2 min)

Learn

take part in or do something engage in

say numbers
one after the other in order

count

Tips: 1. Ask the students to read these words and understand the meanings. 2. Correct the mistakes. 3. Ask the students to make sentences by using these words.(2 min)

Learn

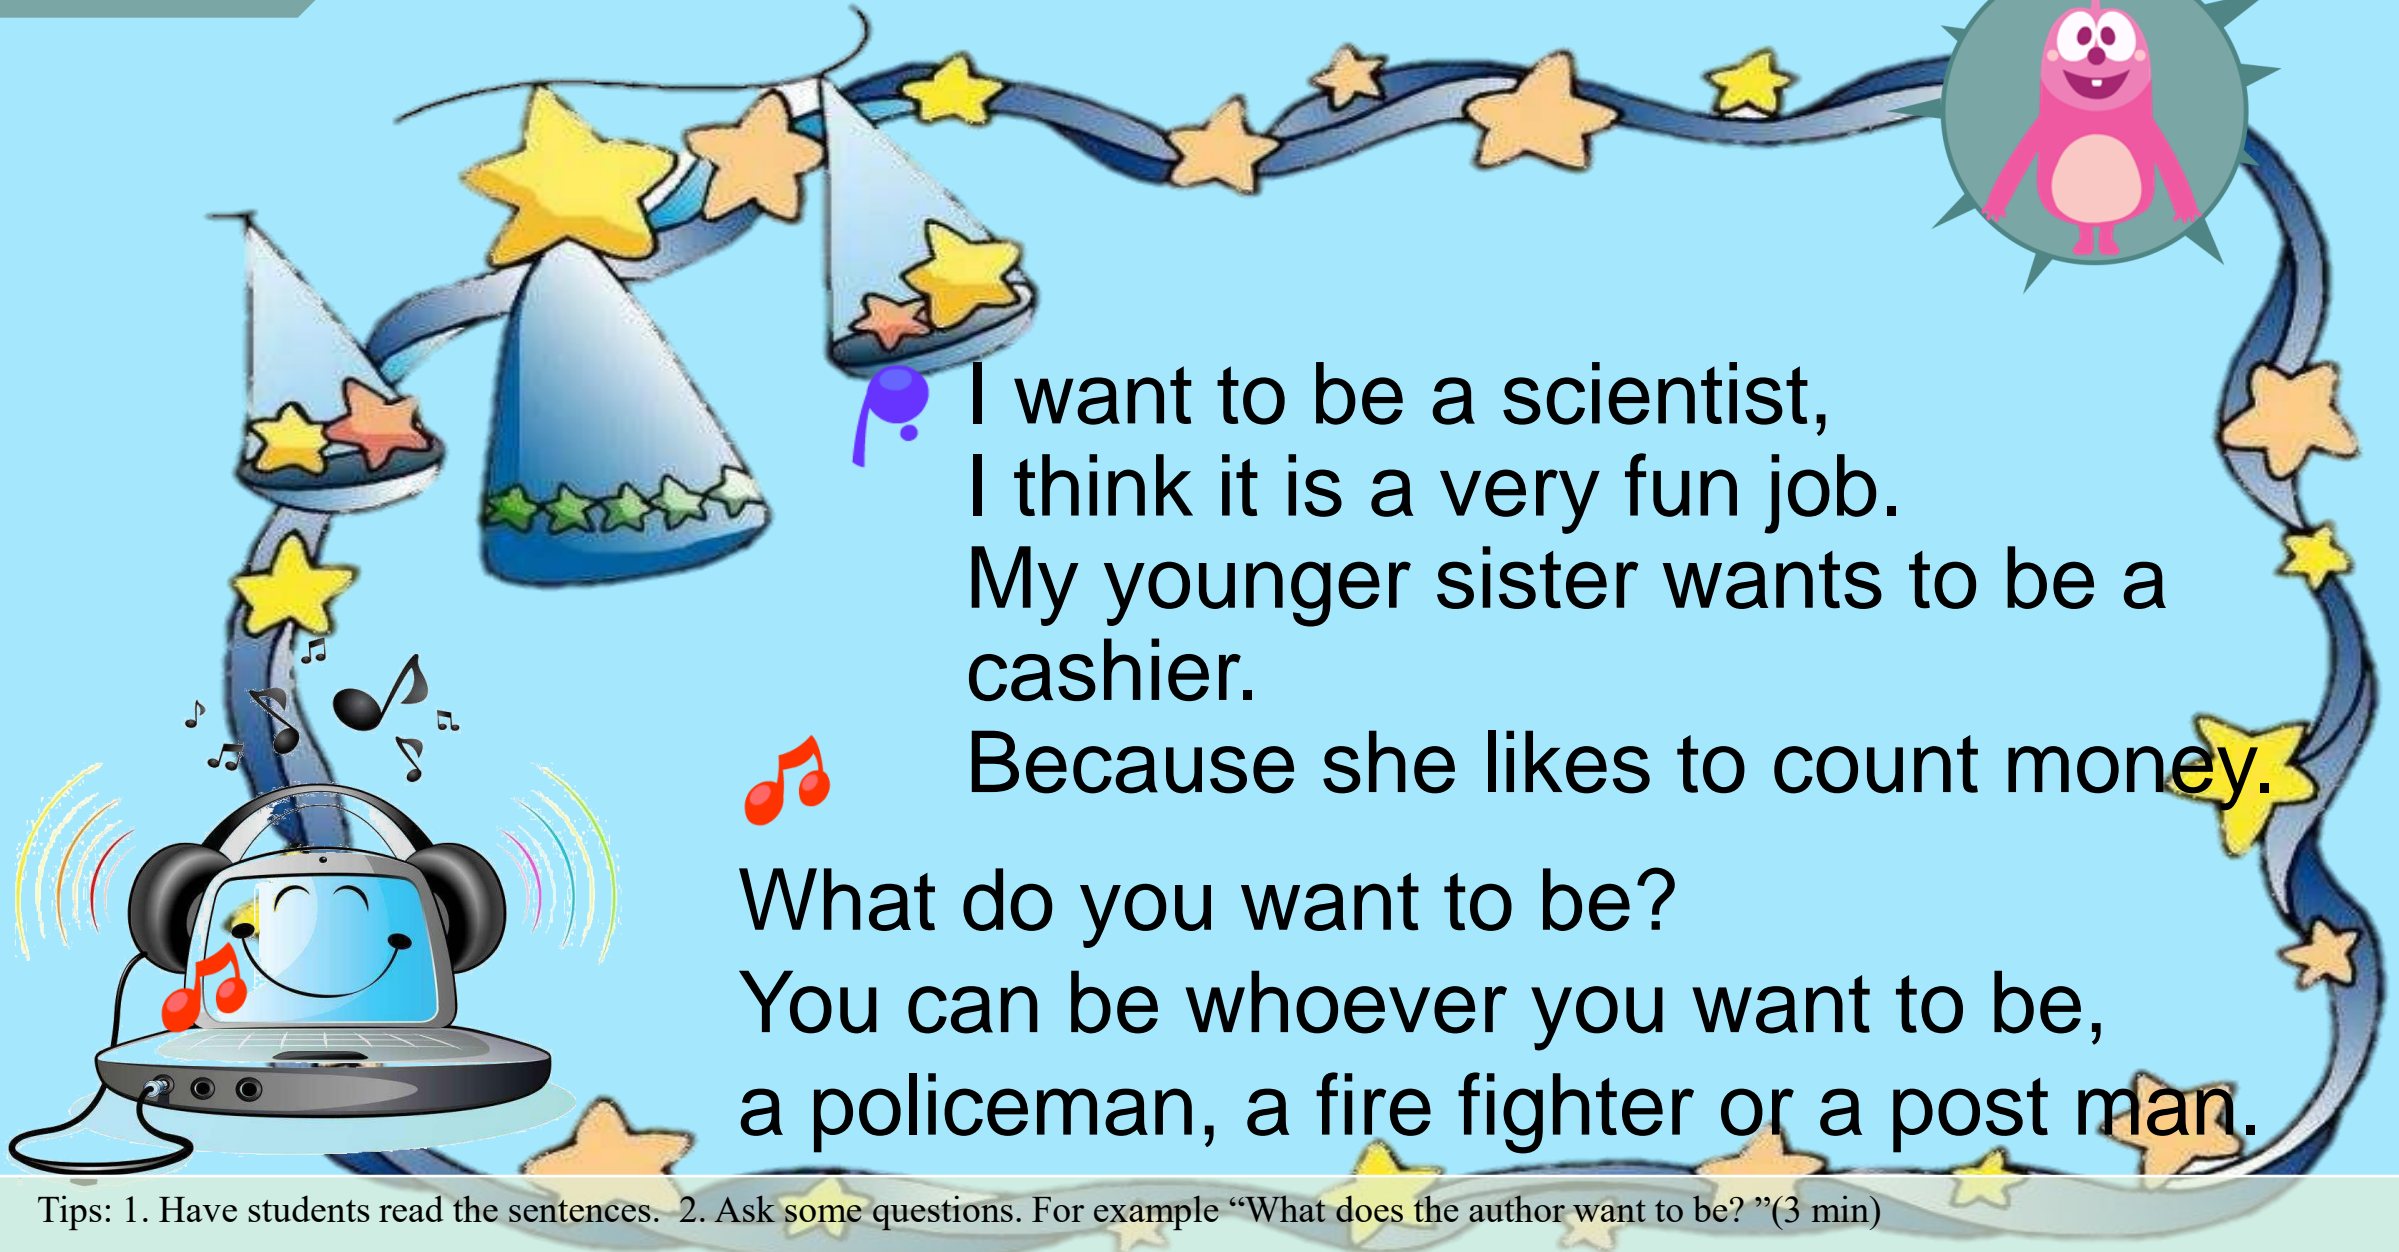

I have a big family.
They engage in different jobs.
My mom is a dentist.
You need to see a dentist twice a year.

My father is a teacher.
He teaches English in a school.
My uncle is a postman.
He works at a post office.

Learn

I want to be a scientist,
I think it is a very fun job.
My younger sister wants to be a cashier.
Because she likes to count money.

What do you want to be?
You can be whoever you want to be,
a policeman, a fire fighter or a post man.

Tips: 1. Have students read the sentences. 2. Ask some questions. For example "What does the author want to be?" (3 min)

Practice

What are the professions in the article?

They are dentists, teachers, postmen, scientists, cashiers, policemen, and fire fighters.

What does his sister want to be?

She wants to be a cashier.

Tips: Have students complete the questions according to the above article. (3 min)

Practice

Fill in the blanks and click the correct picture.

🌀 I have big family. They engage in different jobs.

🍕 My mom is a dentist.

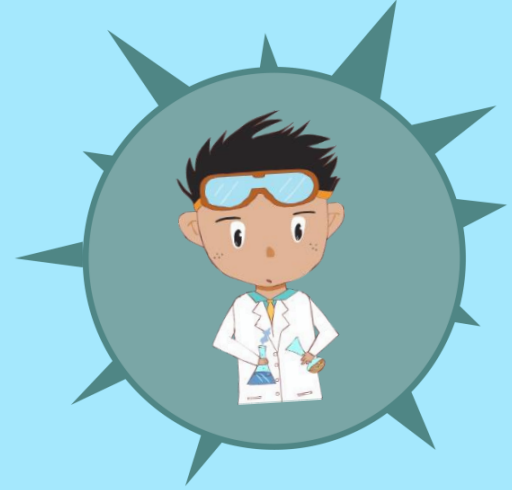

🍪 My uncle is a postman. He works at a post office.

Practice

Fill in the blanks.

My father is a teacher.
He teaches English in a school.

I want to be a scientist. I think it is a very fun job.

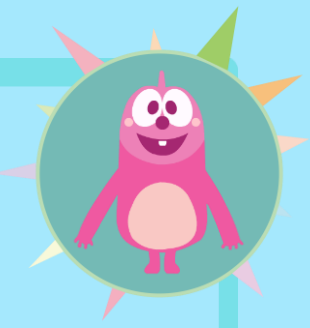

My younger sister wants to be a cashier, because she likes to count money.

Practice

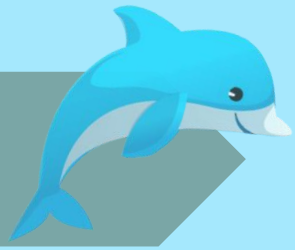

Let's talk.

What do you want to be in the future? Why?

Practice

Let's read it together.

I have a big family.

They engage in different jobs.

My mom is a dentist.

You need to see a dentist twice a year.

My father is a teacher.

He teaches English in a school.

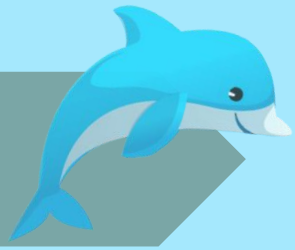

My uncle is a postman.

He works at a post office.

I want to be a scientist,

Practice

Let's read it together.

I think it is a very fun job.

My younger sister wants to be a cashier.

Because she likes to count money.

What do you want to be?

You can be whoever you want to be,
a policeman, a fire fighter or a post man.

Conclusion

The key words we have learned:
dentist, postman, cashier,
engage in, count money

Conclusion

The sentences we have learned:
They engage in different jobs.
My mom is a dentist.
My uncle is a postman.
My younger sister wants to be a cashier.
Because she likes to count money.

