

Assessment

G4-U3-L11

Assessment

Complete the answers. Use would or wouldn't.

1. Would you like to try some rice dumplings?

Yes, _____.

2. Would Anne like to try some steamed buns?

Yes, _____.

3. Would Jack like to try a double cheeseburger?

No, _____.

Assessment

Complete the answers. Use would or wouldn't.

4. Would your sister like to try some bone soup?

Yes, _____.

5. Would you and your friend like to try some soybean milk?

No, _____.

Tips: Complete the answers. Teacher and students practice these dialogues together, ask students whether they know these words of food and review these words. (2 min)

Assessment

Complete the sentences.

1. What _____ Jack _____?

_____ some _____.

2. What _____ Jessie _____?

_____ some _____.

Tips: Have students complete the sentences by themselves, teacher and students practice theses sentences(1 min)

Assessment

Complete the dialogue. Use the words from the box. (Each word may be used more than once.)

I'd like to try would would

Mike: We get to make our own dinner tonight! Anything we want! And I'm hungry!

Lynn: I know. What _____ you _____?

Mike: _____like dumplings!

Mike: Me, too, but it takes time. And I don't know how Mom cooks them.

Lynn: Well, _____you like _____ a sandwich? I see Mom make them all the time.

Mike: Okay. I'll get the bread and cheese.

Assessment

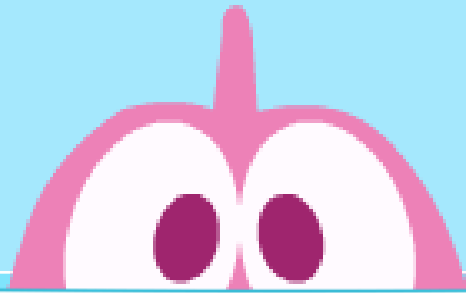

Answer the questions. Write sentences.

1. What would you like to eat
for breakfast?

2. What would you like to eat for lunch?

3. What would you like to eat for dinner?

Talk.

Introduce three kinds of Chinese festival food.

Assessment

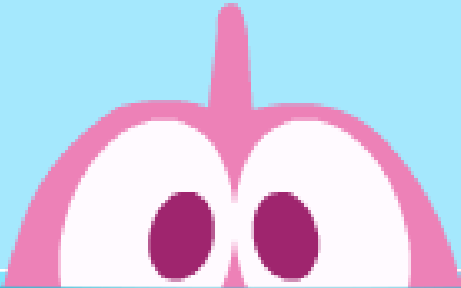

Join the sentences. Use the conjunctions: because or so.

1. Jack got ill. He went to see a doctor.

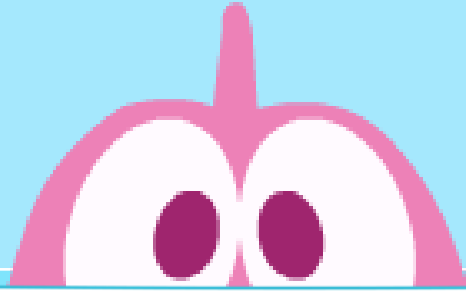

2. Anne doesn't go to school. She is ill.

Tips: 1. Join the sentences and have students read these sentences. 2. Correct the mistakes. (2 min)

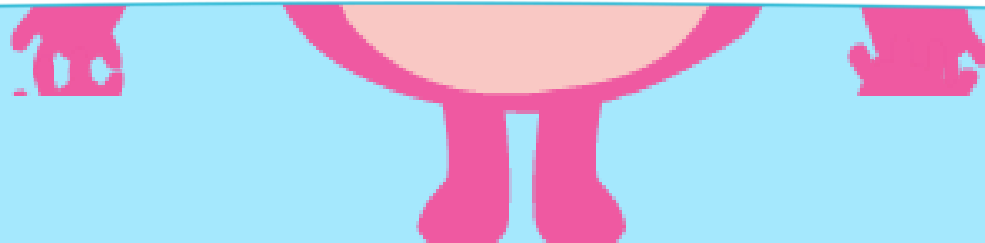

Write two sentences with using the conjunction word 'because'.

Write two sentences with using the conjunction word 'so'.

Assessment

Answer the question.

Do you have healthy eating habits? Do you know how to keep healthy eating habits? Explain.

