

The New Semester, New Start

G4-U1-L6

Learn

Today is the first day of school.
We're back to our classrooms.
It's been so long.
We miss each other.

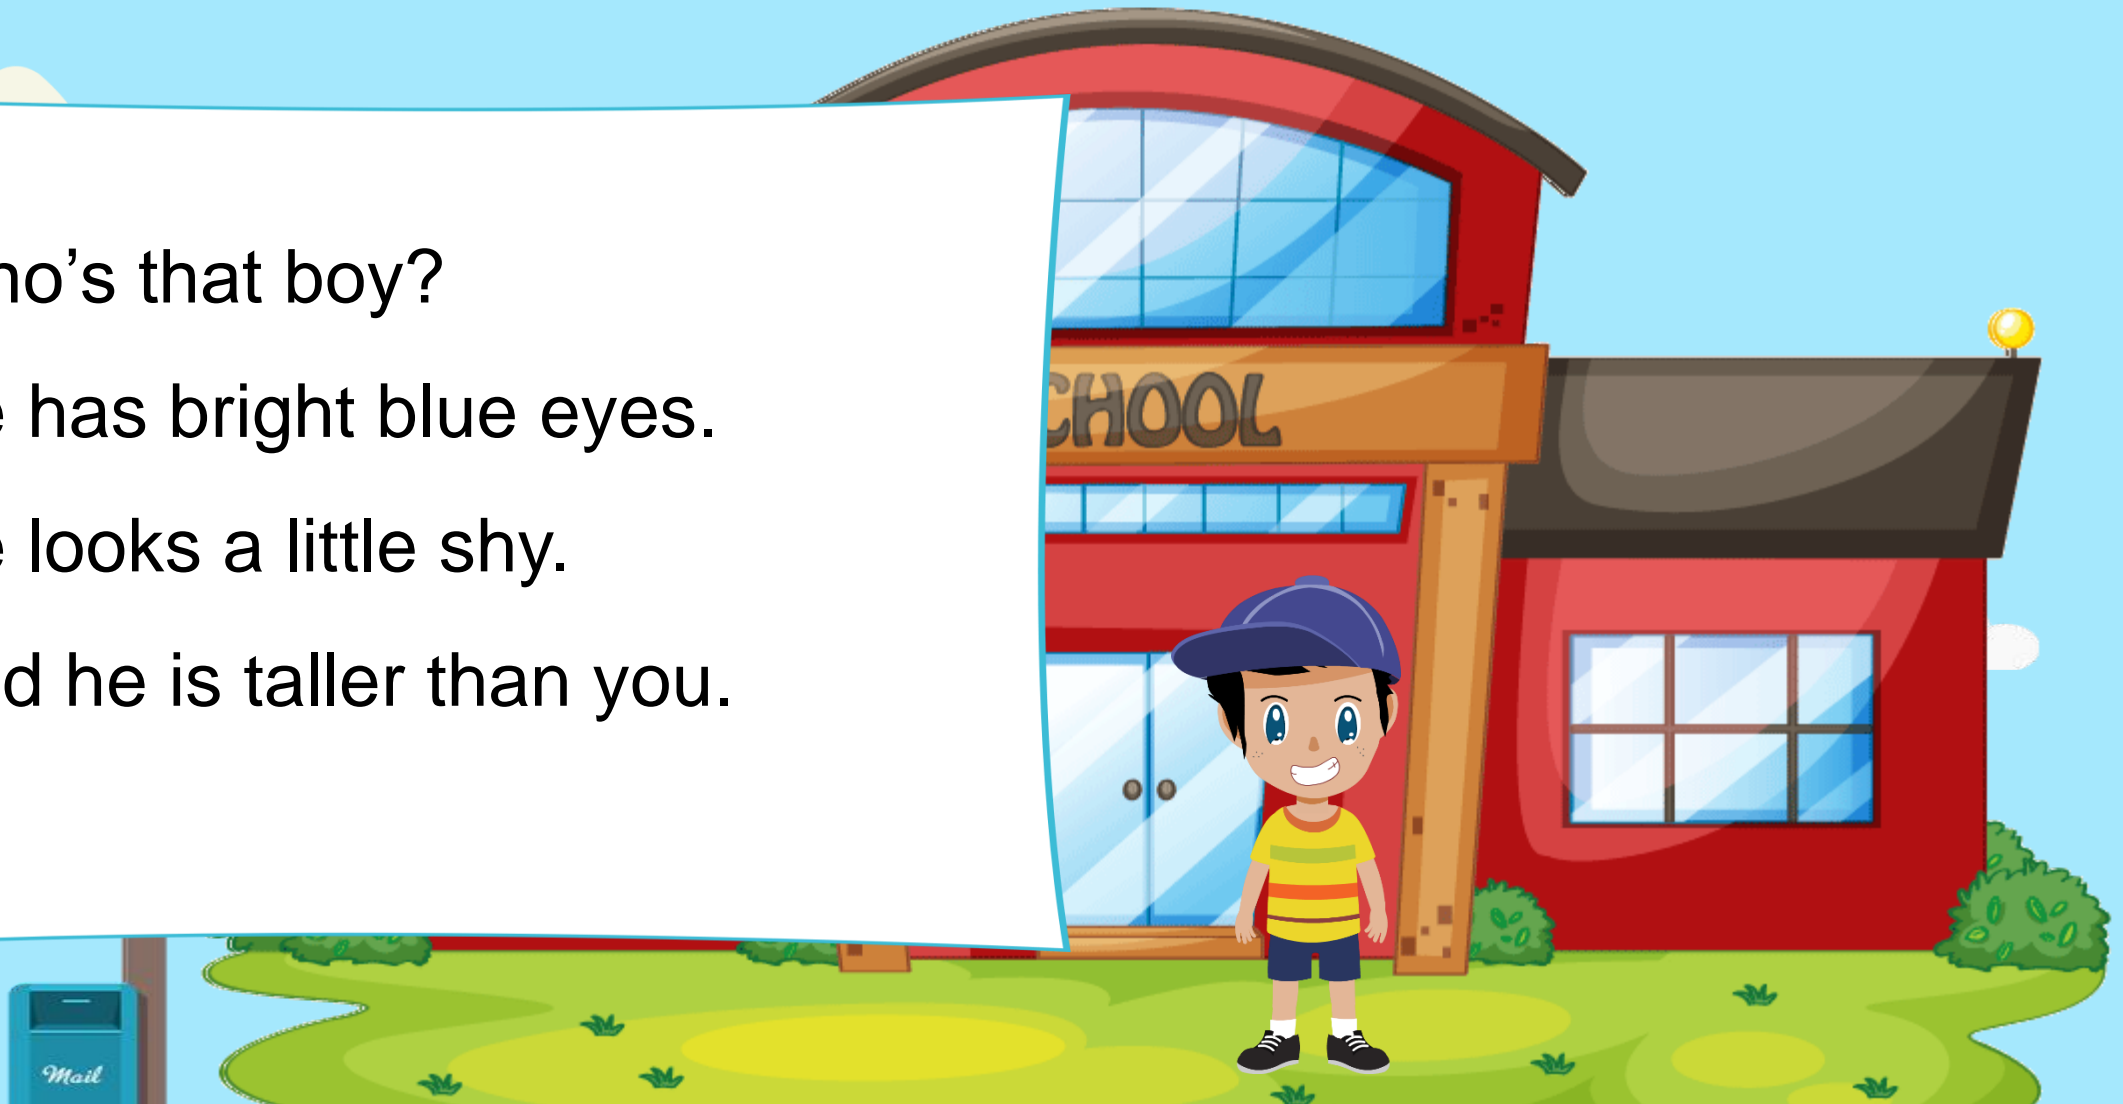

Learn

Who's that boy?

He has bright blue eyes.

He looks a little shy.

And he is taller than you.

Learn

I know him.

He is our new classmate.

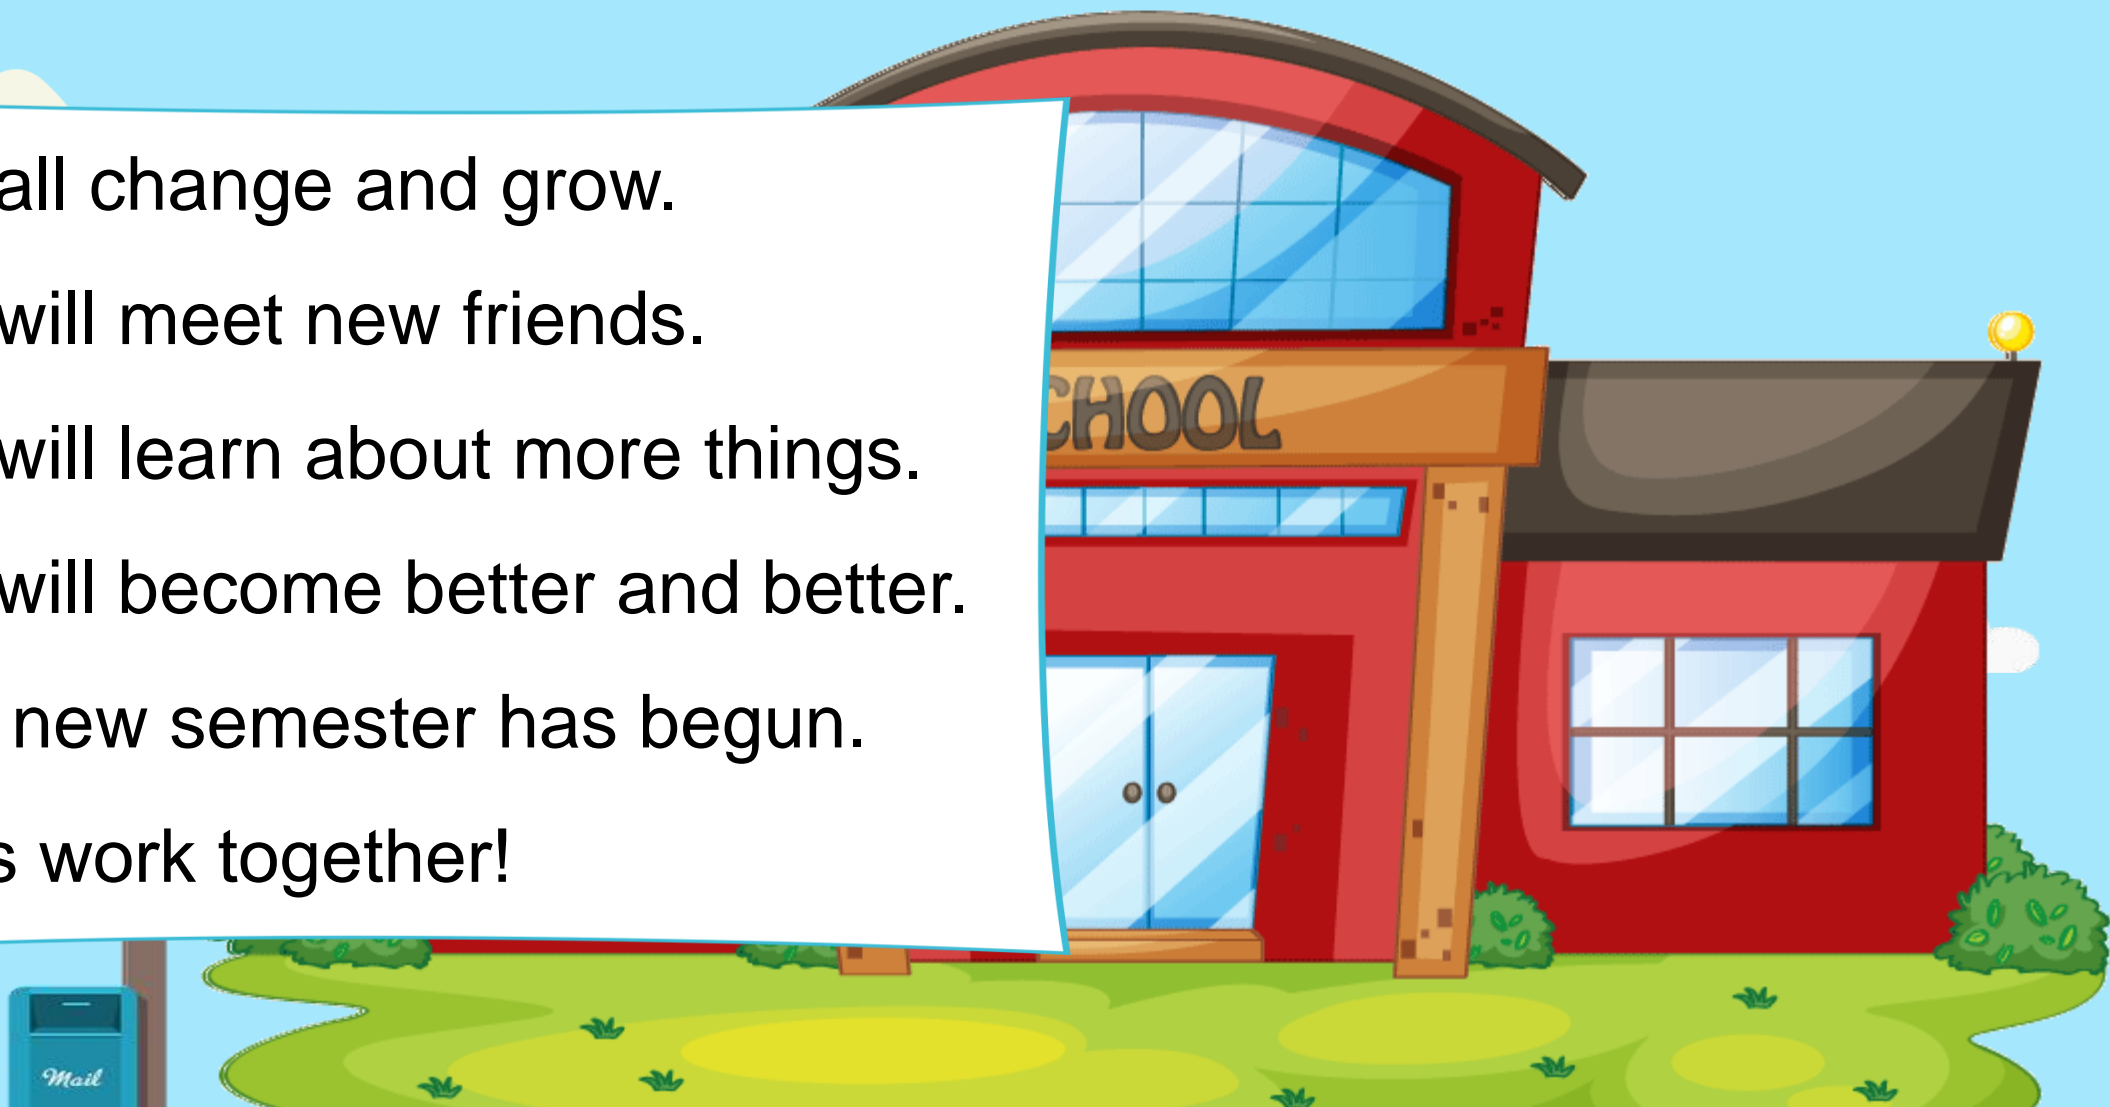

We got many new classmates.

We can make friends with them.

Learn

We all change and grow.
We will meet new friends.
We will learn about more things.
We will become better and better.
The new semester has begun.
Let's work together!

Practice

Who is the boy with bright blue eyes?

What day is it today?

He is a new student.

Today is the first day of school.

Practice

Write the comparative degree of the words.

Practice

True or False

1. Today is the last day of school.

2. The new student has bright blue eyes.

3. The new student is shorter than the author.

4. The new student looks a little shy.

Practice

bigger

long

short

taller

Tips: Have students practice the words. (1-2 min)

Practice

Answer the question.

Talk about your new semester.

Practice

Let's read together.

- Today is the first day of school.
- We're back to our classrooms.
- It's been so long.
- We miss each other.
- Who's that boy?

Tips: Have students read the sentences at least twice. (1-2 min)

Practice

Let's read together.

- He has bright blue eyes.
- He looks a little shy.
- And he is taller than you.
- I know him.
- He is our new classmate.
- We got many new classmates.

Tips: Have students read the sentences at least twice. (1-2 min)

Practice

Let's read together.

- We can make friends with them.
 - We all change and grow.
 - We will meet new friends.
 - We will learn about more things.
 - We will become better and better.
 - The new semester has begun.
- Let's work together!

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:
bright blue, better, semester
2. We have learned the sentences:
He has bright blue eyes.
We will become better and better.
The new semester has begun.
Let's work together!

