

I Prepared a Present for You

G3-U6-L3

Learn

odour

hedgehog

durian

Tips: 1. Ask the students to look at these pictures and read these words. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1-2 min)

Learn

Hi, how about your summer vacation in Hainan, George?

It was fantastic, and I prepared a present for you, Mike.

George went to Hainan with his parents.

Learn

Really! You are so nice.

Sure. And you can guess what it is.

George wants Mike to guess the present.

Learn

Ok, ok.

Is it a toy?

It looks like a little
hedgehog.

No. It is a tropical fruit.

The present looks like a little hedgehog.

Learn

Is it a pineapple?

It smells terrible.

There is a strange odour
in the air.

No. it is a durian.

But it tastes
delicious...

Practice

Fill in the blanks.

1. Mike thinks the durian

_____ terrible.

2. George thinks the durian _____ like a hedgehog.

Practice

Write George or Mike.

3. _____ likes durian fruit.

4. _____ doesn't like the smell of the durian fruit.

Answer the question.

1. What does George think about the durian fruit?

Answer the question.

2. What does Mike think about the durian?

Answer the questions.

3. Do you like eating durians? Why or why not?

Answer the question.

4. Can you retell the story?

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:
odour, durian, hedgehog, tropical fruit
2. We have learned the sentences:
There is a strange odour in the air.
It looks like a little hedgehog.
It is a tropical fruit.
It is a durian.

