

Doing Chores Means Love

G3-U3-L10

Learn

odd jobs

fold the clothes

clean the window

Learn

has a responsibility for

>> something that is your job or duty to deal with

appreciate

v. to recognize how good someone or something is
and to value this person or thing

Doing Chores Means Love

Do you ignore your parents' requests to clean your room? Or are you willing to do some household chores in your family?

Doing Chores Means Love

Chores don't always seem fun, but doing chores is a great way for kids to learn "love" along with independence. Everyone in the family has a responsibility for the family.

Doing Chores Means Love

Try doing a few odd jobs such as folding your clothes and cleaning the windows. There is no need for a reason, just show your mom you appreciate all she does for you.

Practice

Are they happy to help? Circle the happy face or the sad face.

Can you help me?

Hey, I need some help!

1.

Sure!

2.

Now? I'm watching TV.

Practice

Fill in the blanks.

appreciate    fold clothes
has a responsibility for

1. Everyone has a responsibility for the family.

2. I appreciate your help.

3. I can help you fold clothes.

Practice

Let's talk.

What kinds of chores can you do for your family?

---

---

Practice

Let's talk.

Are you willing to do some household chores in your family? Explain.

---

---

Conclusion

1. We have learned the phrases:

has a responsibility for, odd jobs,
fold the clothes, clean the window, appreciate

Conclusion

2. We have learned the sentences:

Everyone in the family has a responsibility for the family.

Try doing a few odd jobs such as folding your clothes and cleaning the window.

There is no need for a reason, just show your mom you appreciate all she does for you.

