

Respect All Kinds of Jobs

G3-U2-L10

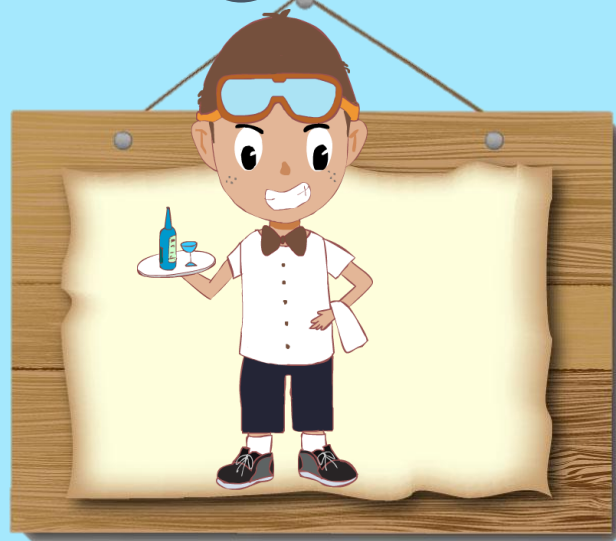

Learn

01 sanitation worker

02

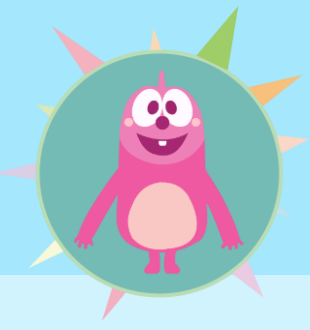

waiter

03 waitress

Tips: 1. Ask the students to look at these pictures and read these words. 2. Correct the mistakes. (2-3 min)

Respect All Kinds of Jobs

There are some people who don't respect certain careers. They might feel that some jobs serve no valuable purpose, or that they belong to a lower class, or that the people who have those jobs are worthless.

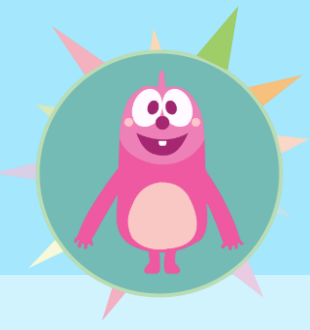

Sanitation Worker

A sanitation worker has a dirty job, but it's one that most communities can't live without. Sanitation workers make neighborhoods, streets, and public areas stay clean. We should thank them and respect them.

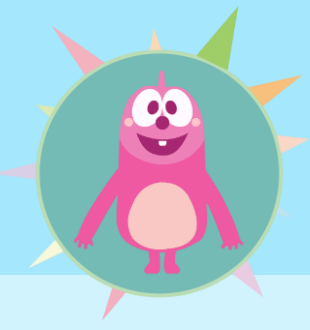

Waiter and Waitress

How many times have you been to a restaurant and seen a waitress being disrespected? Actually, the waitress is simply doing her job the best she can. Showing your respect will help you receive a better service and help her feel good.

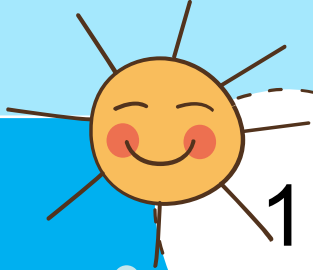

Respect All Kinds of Jobs

Workers should be respected. Maybe we can say “thanks” to them, help them do something or be more patient with them.

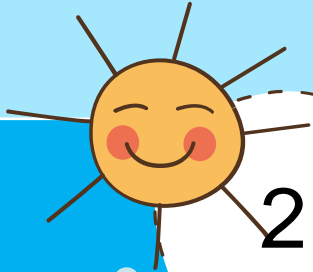

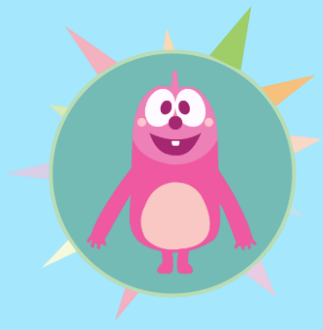

Practice

Answer the question.

1. There are some people who don't respect certain careers. Why?

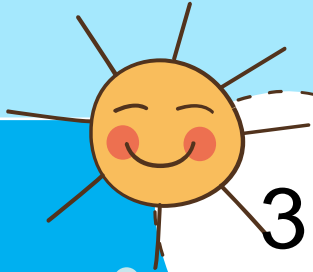

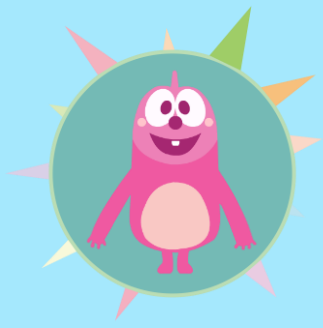

Practice

Answer the question.

2. Why should we respect a sanitation worker?

Practice

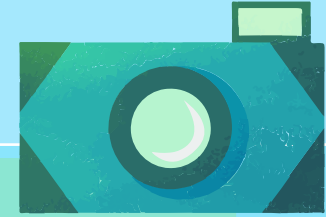

Answer the question.

3. How can you show your respect to a waiter?

Practice

Talk about this kind of job.

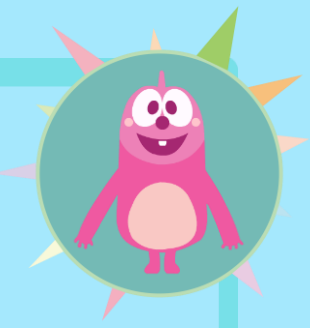

A large green speech bubble with four horizontal lines for writing, containing a red paper airplane icon.

Tips: 1. Ask the students to look at the picture and introduce the job. For example, what they do and the importance of the job. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1-2 min)

Practice

Let's talk.

What do your parents do? Are you proud of them?

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:

respect, sanitation worker, waiter, waitress

2. We have learned the sentences:

There are some people who don't respect certain careers.

A sanitation worker has a dirty job, but it's one that most communities can't live without.

The waitress or waiter is simply doing her or his job the best she or he can.

