

The Dog and Its Reflection

G3-U4-L3

Practice

Tips: 1. Have students look at these pictures and read these words. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1-2 min)

If a dog growls,
it makes a deep,
angry noise.

growl

If an animal snaps, it tries to bite someone.

snap

Learn

What's the matter with the dog?

It fell into the water.

Tips: 1. Ask the students to read the story. 2. Correct the mistakes. (2 min)

Learn

What happened?

We crossed the plank lying across a running river. He saw his own reflection reflected in the water.

Learn

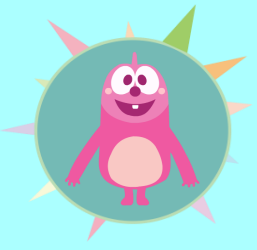

Ooh...

Although he didn't know it was his reflection. He growled at his reflection.

Tips: 1. Ask the students to read the story. 2. Correct the mistakes. (2 min)

Learn

He became very angry
and snapped at his
reflection in the water, then...

Tips: 1. Ask the students to read the story. 2. Correct the mistakes. (2 min)

Practice

Talk about the questions.

What happened to the dog?

Why did the dog fall into the water?

It fell into the water.

It made a snap at its reflection in the water.

Practice

Fill in the blanks.

Jack and the dog crossed a plank lying across a running river. The dog saw itself reflected in the water. Then the dog growled at its reflection and snapped at it. The dog fell into the water.

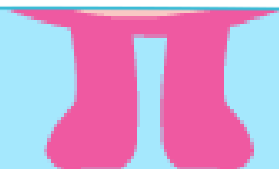

Tips: 1. Ask the students fill in the blanks according to the story. 2. Correct the mistakes. 3. Ask the students to read the paragraph again. (2-3 min)

Practice

Make sentences by using these words.

1. drop into

2. growled at

Practice

Let's talk.

Do you have a pet?
If so, what can it do?

Answer:

Talk about an interesting thing about your pet.

Answer:

Tips: 1. Have students answer these questions. 2. Correct the mistakes.(3-4 min)

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:
fall into, plank, reflection, growl at ..., snap
2. We have learned the sentences:
It fell into the water.
We crossed the plank lying across a running river.
It growled at its reflection.
It became very angry and snapped at its reflection
in the water.

