

I'm Just Cooking

G3-U2-L3

Learn

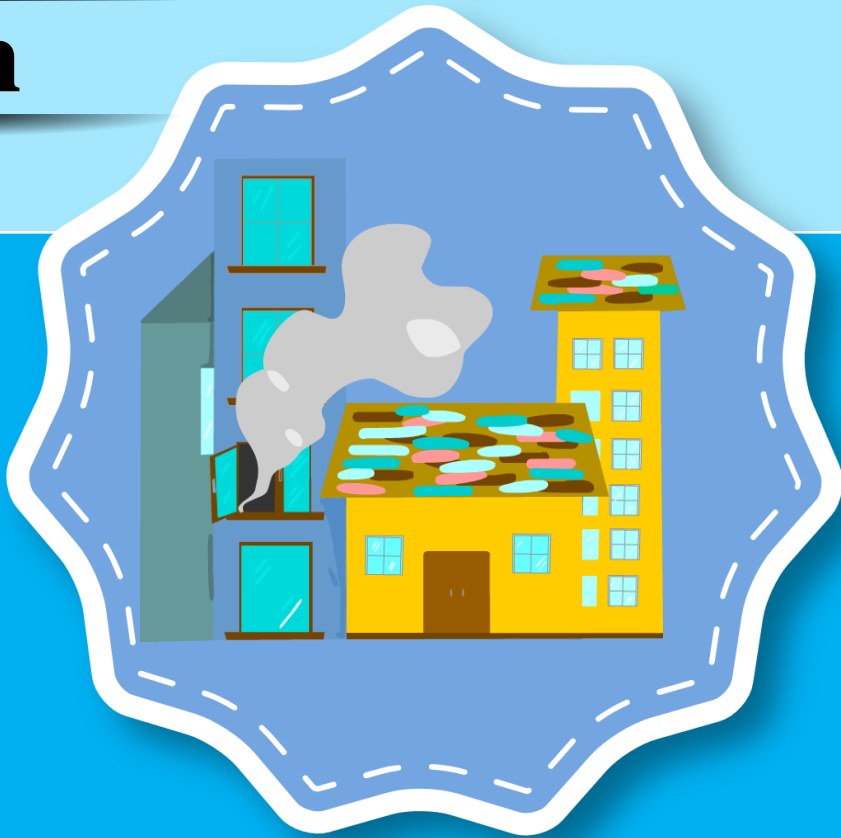

on fire

a wet coat

Tips: 1. Review the words, and have students read them at least three times. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1-2 min)

Learn

smoke firefighter

Learn

Look, Mike! Aunt Susan's house is on fire.

We should call 119 right now, Alan.

Learn

Yes. I am calling now.

Tell them the exact location.

Sure. They will come soon.

Tips: 1. Teacher and students practice the dialogue. 2. Correct the mistakes(1-2 min)

Learn

We should tell Aunt Susan. We can bring some water and put on a wet coat.

And what do we do next?

Yeah, putting on a wet coat can make us safe.

Learn

Aunt Susan, are you at home?

Yes, boys, what happened?

Aunt Susan, please open the door.

Learn

Aunt Susan, we saw smoke coming out of your house. We thought it was on fire, so we called the firefighters.

Oh, thanks, boys, but I'm just cooking!

Tips: 1. Teacher and students practice the dialogue. 2. Ask “What is aunt Susan doing?”(1-2 min)

Tips

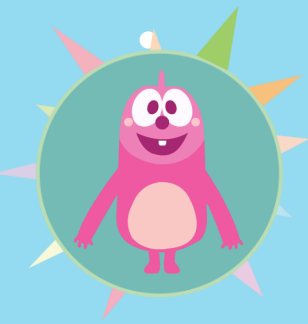

fire telephone numbers

China: 119 America: 911
England: 999 Australia: 000
New Zealand: 111

Practice

True or False.

Alan

1. George called the firefighters.

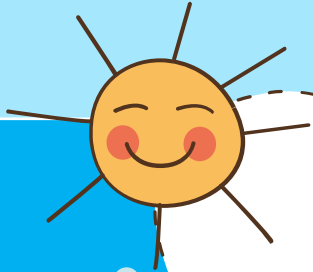

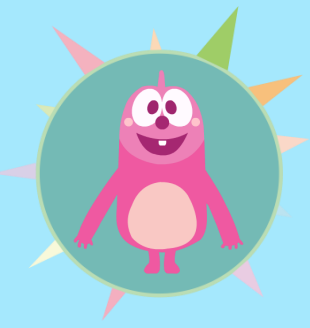

2. Aunt Susan was cooking.

3. Susan's house ^{wasn't} was on fire.

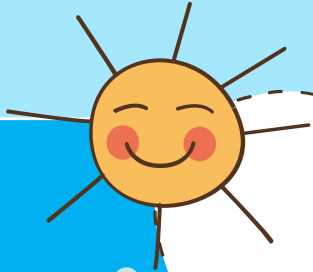

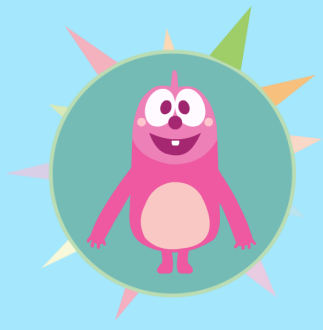

Practice

Answer the question.

1. Why did the two boys call 119?

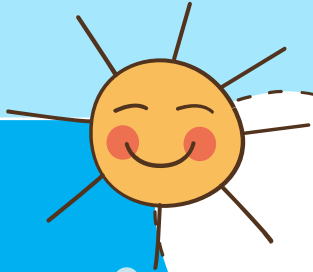

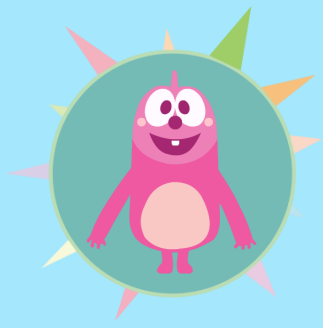

Practice

Answer the question.

2. What was aunt Susan doing?

Practice

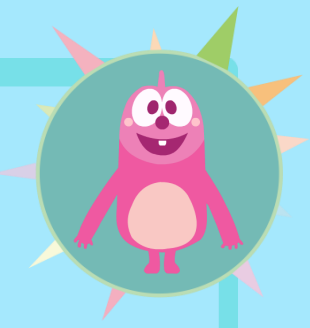

Answer the question.

3. What will happen next?
Continue the story.

Practice

Let's talk.

What should we do when there is a fire?

Conclusion

1. We have learned the words:
on fire, a wet coat, smoke, firefighter
2. We have learned the sentences:
Aunt Susan's house is on fire.
We can bring some water and put on a wet coat.
We saw smoke coming out of your house.
We called the firefighters.

