

Who Took the Bread from the Fridge?

G3-U7-L6

Learn

Who took the bread from the fridge?

Anne took the bread from the fridge.

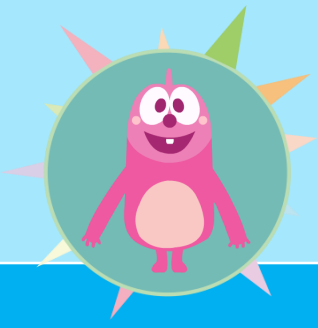

Who took the bacon from the fridge?

Jack took the bacon from the fridge.

Learn

Who took the lettuce from the fridge?

George took the lettuce from the fridge.

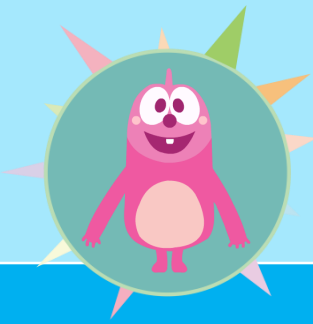

Who took the ketchup from the fridge?

Joan took the ketchup from the fridge.

Learn

Why did they take these things?
They wanted to make some sandwiches.
Everything is ok.
It's easy. It's a breeze.
They finish all the sandwiches.
Let's have a try!

Learn

It's a breeze!

↪ means that the same as It's easy!

Model: Math is easy for me. It's a breeze!

Tips: 1. Ask the students to understand the expression. 2. Correct the mistakes. 3. Invite students to tell what's easy for them by using the expression.(1-2 min)

Answer the question.

1. Why did the children take this food?

Answer the question.

2. What did Anne take from the fridge?

Practice

Answer the question.

3. Who took the bacon from the fridge?

Tips: 1. Teacher read the question and let students answer the question according to the above article. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1 min)

Answer the question.

4. Who took the ketchup from the fridge?

Practice

Answer the questions.

5. What kind of sandwiches do you like? Could you make sandwiches by yourself?

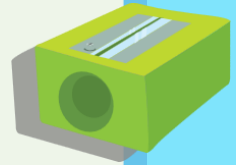

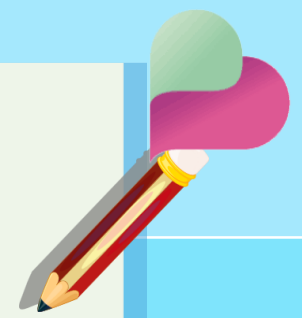

Tips: 1. Teacher read the question and let students answer the questions. 2. Correct the mistakes. (1 min)

Practice

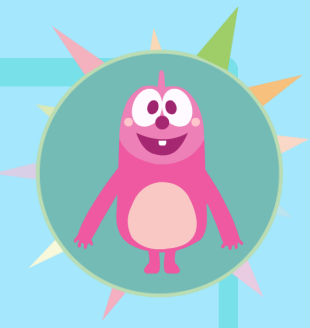

Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ took the bread from the fridge.
2. Jack took the _____ from the fridge.
3. George took the _____ from the fridge.
4. _____ took the ketchup from the fridge.

Practice

Let's talk.

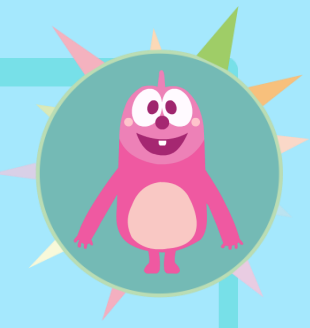

1. What vegetables do you like?

Tips: 1. Ask some more questions further. 2. Guide the students to show their own thoughts. 3. Correct the mistakes on grammar and pronunciation. (1 min)

Practice

Let's talk.

2. What kind of fruit do you like?

Practice

Let's read together.

Who took the bread from
the fridge?

Anne took the bread from
the fridge.

Who took the bacon from
the fridge?

Jack took the bacon from the fridge.

Practice

Let's read together.

Who took the lettuce from
the fridge?

George took the lettuce from
the fridge.

Who took the ketchup from
the fridge?

Joan took the ketchup from the fridge.

Practice

Let's read together.

Why did they take these things?
They wanted to make some
sandwiches.
Everything is ok.
It's easy. It's a breeze.
They finish all the sandwiches.
Let's have a try!

Tips: Have students read the sentences twice. (1 min)

Conclusion

We have learned the words:

bacon, take...from..., lettuce, breeze

We have learned the sentences:

Who took the bacon from the fridge?

Jack took the bacon from the fridge.

Who took the lettuce from the fridge?

George took the lettuce from the fridge.

It's a breeze.

